Location:	Augusta	Position #:	00500-0922
Position Type:	Full Time	Class Code:	9150
Grade/Salary:	31 (Confidential)	$54,579.20 - $75,067.20

The Department of Agriculture, Conservation & Forestry, is currently recruiting to fill an Assistant State Veterinarian position in Augusta. This position works with Animal Health/Animal Welfare Jointly.

BRIEF JOB DESCRIPTION: This is a professional veterinary position, with time divided equally between:

1. Overseeing domestic animal disease control programs for the State of Maine and, at times, assisting in the investigating animal cruelty complaints for the State of Maine. Work involves directing or executing the enforcement of the Maine Animal Welfare Act and regulatory laws, implementing programs concerning animal health, animal welfare, human public health and disease control; and
2. Overseeing poultry and livestock disease control programs for the State of Maine. Work involves directing or executing the enforcement of regulatory laws and implementing programs concerning animal health, animal welfare, human public health and disease control.

The work performed is highly technical and specialized and employee receives no technical supervision for standard veterinary activities. Additional training to perform specific functions beyond typical veterinary repertoire (e.g. forensics, Shelter medicine, animal behavior, and disaster response and incident command) may be required as determined by the supervisor(s). Training may require both in and out-of-state travel for extended periods. Work is performed in concert with other state veterinarians, and is performed under administrative direction.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: A current license to practice veterinary medicine and one (1) year of professional veterinarian experience beyond such licensure.

Additional Requirements: As a conditional offer of employment is made, the candidate selected for this position must obtain a State of Maine Veterinary License before being able to perform the duties of this position. If the selected candidate is not licensed in Maine, the opportunity to obtain this license will be offered and scheduled prior to the candidate being employed.
